IF YOU ARE OR WERE EMPLOYED AT WESTWAY DINER AS A SERVICE EMPLOYEE, INCLUDING KITCHEN STAFF, SERVER,
BUSSER, OR RUNNER, AT ANY TIME SINCE JANUARY 2, 2002, PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE.

A court authorized this Notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

- A former Westway Diner (“Westway”) service employee (“Plaintiff”) has sued Westway claiming that Westway failed to pay him for all the hours that he worked, including overtime; failed to pay him an extra hour’s pay at the New York minimum wage for workdays on which he worked longer than ten hours; and made unlawful deductions from his pay.
- The Plaintiff has brought this lawsuit on his own behalf and on behalf of all service employees who worked at Westway since January 2, 2002 to the present, including all kitchen staff, servers, bussers, and runners (the “Class”).
- Plaintiff seeks to recover from Westway unpaid wages, disgorgement of the improper deductions, interest, and injunctive relief to stop these practices in the future. Plaintiff also seeks from Westway recovery of costs, interest, and attorneys’ fees.
- Westway denies that the Plaintiff’s claims have merit and has asserted various defenses against those claims.
- The Court has allowed this lawsuit to proceed as a class action lawsuit under the New York State Labor Law.
- In a class action lawsuit, one or more people called the “Class Representative” sue on behalf of other people who have similar claims, called the “Class.” Class members are automatically included in the case unless they choose to exclude themselves, in writing, from the Class.

- The Honorable Denise Cote, United States District Judge for the Southern District of New York, is overseeing this lawsuit. This class action lawsuit is known as Pefanis v. Westway Diner, Inc., Case No. 08-CV-002. This Notice is not an expression by the Court of any opinion as to the merits of any claims or defenses by either party to this lawsuit.
- The purpose of this Notice is to advise you of the pendency of this class action lawsuit and of certain rights you may have with respect to this lawsuit.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS LAWSUIT

1. Remain in the lawsuit

If you do nothing in response to this Notice, you will remain a member of the Class. This may allow you to get money or other benefits that may come from a trial or settlement of this class action lawsuit.

By remaining a member of the Class, however, you give up the right to sue Westway separately under the New York Labor Law. You will be legally bound by all of the orders that the Court issues and judgments that the Court enters in this class action lawsuit. Regardless of whether the Plaintiff wins or loses this lawsuit, you will not be able to sue Westway in a separate action under the New York State Labor Law for the claims alleged in this case.

If you remain in this lawsuit and the Plaintiff succeeds in proving the claims against Westway, and if money or other benefits are obtained from Westway, you will be notified about how to ask for a share of the money or other benefits.

2. Ask to be excluded from the lawsuit

If you ask to be excluded from this class action lawsuit, you will retain the right to sue Westway separately and on your own behalf.

If you are excluded, you will not be entitled to a share in any money or other benefits that the Class may obtain from Westway from either a trial or a settlement in this lawsuit.

If you wish to request exclusion from the Class, you must read, sign and return the enclosed Exclusion Request form by [date] to:

D. Maimon Kirschenbaum
Joseph, Herzfeld, Hester & Kirschenbaum LLP

The form must be postmarked by [45 days from the date of the Notice].

If you exclude yourself from this class action lawsuit in order to start or continue your own lawsuit against Westway, you should talk to your own lawyer soon because your claims may be subject to a statute of limitations.
